Update on McTell Papers of Michael Gray

April 26, 2011

As we announced in June 2010, the Zach S. Henderson Library of Georgia Southern University had acquired the research papers and recordings compiled by English author Michael Gray during the writing of his book on Georgia blues artist Blind Willie McTell, one of the earliest blues performers to record. Now Marvin Goss, Head of Special Collections, has announced the availability of a finding aid for this collection. This complete list of the items in the "Michael Gray Papers for Hand Me My Travelin' Shoes: In Search of Blind Willie McTell, 1991-2010" collection is available in our EagleScholar repository at this link (look for the file at the bottom of that page).

For more information about Michael Gray, please visit his new website at <http://www.michaelgray.net/> where you can find his McTell Blog and more. You can also hear Michael Gray and Richard Flynn talk about their recent fundraising event for the Friends of Henderson Library at this link.
